the FDA began warning consumers in 2009 that such products may contain substances that can cause health problems. Neomycin and hydrocortisone drops, it's the neomycin that is the problem in some people. And if you...