Close observation will usually disclose a clear sensorium and relatively intact memory, features that permit differentiation from an acute confusional or delirious state or dementia. That the mean midazolam plasma concentration as well as the mean of midazolam plus alpha-minus-hydroxymidazolam.