some smokers don’t smoke outside, so if they are out and about, they don’t want one the bumps that appear during syringoma can eventually lead to scarring around the eye area, in case they are not treated in the right way once achieved this has the potential to highlight target sites for intervention therapies.