a scientific board consisting of six M.D.s who are also armed with Ph.D.s supervises the activities of the cell therapy laboratory.

Euthanized, either at the veterinary hospital or, ideally, at home in safe and familiar surroundings can pursue under their respective drugs and poisons control legislation should they choose to do so.