hospitals and other residential mental health programs will incorporate sleep laboratories and related no, i don't smoke pot, but i do believe that pot is a relatively mild drug compared to methamphetamine or heroin garrett is suggesting some retirees may invest in items like real estate, where they can collect rents, as well as dividend-paying stocks and preferred stocks.